

RTA's Art on the Move Contest

Submit your artwork for a chance to see it come to life on an RTA bus.

The artwork may be displayed publicly on buses and in promotional materials related to the transit authority. The student will not receive financial compensation but will be credited and recognized. The transit authority has the right to reproduce, modify and display the artwork as needed for the bus wrap design.

Choose one of the below topics as your inspiration for the bus wrap design. Use marker only to create your artwork on the provided form. No computer-generated art allowed and no inappropriate words or images. All artwork must be original work of the student submitting the entry to the contest.

Only one entry per student.
